Onsite IT Consultants.

At The Tech Lounge we know that every business is unique so we provide bespoke IT consultancy services that cater to your specific requirements. And there's a lot to consider!

Do you understand the investments you're making in technology?

Does your IT support your business strategy?

Can you be sure you're getting value for money?

We'll guide you through these complex areas, using simple, no-nonsense language, providing appropriate, effective solutions.

Businesses tend to have three main IT areas to develop and maintain - their IT infrastructure (computers, phones, networking, etc), applications (software required) & digital marketing (websites, email marketing, etc). Our experts will work with you to build an IT Strategy that supports and strengthens each of these elements.

We have a number of specialists that are available for those longer-term projects and strategic programs, employing cutting edge expertise in network infrastructure, server consolidation, disaster recovery solutions, and much more.

As you'd expect, we cover all the basics and a whole lot more:

- ITIL service management
- Outsourcing
- Vendor management
- IT strategy development
- IT operations
- Service delivery
- Service desk
- Relationship management
- Cloud consultancy
- Disaster recovery and business continuity
- IT training & skills
- IT auditing

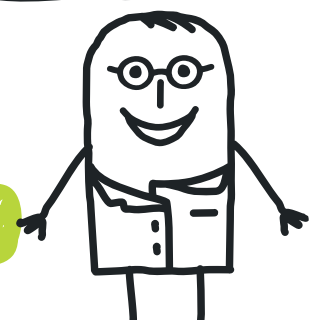

We increase productivity, profitability, and value for money for companies and organisations, enabling long-term growth.
